Arme Kleine. Dezember in Stuttgart. Why Silas, and why at this time. She ignored the monster and let out a slow breath, unperturbed. This paper explores the politics of region and identity in North Sulawesi, more specifically Minahasa, during the middle decades of the twentieth century, from the rigorous order of the late colonial period to the tumultuous times of the Permesta regional rebellion. In doing so, it highlights continuities in Minahasan political life through the apparently radical changes of that period spanning revolution and independence, and also between Minahasa in the An Outline
